

Program of the Skillsharing Week April 9th - 15th

Monday 9

10 a.m.	Climbing Day	La Gare	Learning tree climbing and abseiling on ropes. Crossing walkways for whoever wants.
10 a.m.	Soap Making	bus between Farouezt and Le Sabot	Donations necessary (for materials). Bring organic oil! Max. 15 people. all week	Blacksmith Workshop	Le Tertre	Learn some basic blacksmith skills. You need to sign up, as the number of people is limited. Donations for materials.
all week 2-7 p.m.	Construction of a Wind Turbine		every afternoon
12 a.m.	Presentation of a DIY wind turbine	Field
5 p.m.	Sambactivism	La Gaité	Exploring activist Samba and Rythms of Resistance. Beginners and intermediate.
9 p.m.	Games	Field

Tuesday 10

10 a.m.	Climbing Day	La Gare	Learning tree climbing and abseiling on ropes. Crossing walkways for whoever wants.
10 a.m.	Soap Making	bus between Farouezt and Le Sabot	Donations necessary (for materials). Bring organic oil! Max. 15 people.
10:30 a.m.	Learning German		Come with ideas of what to learn. For Beginners. We'll make a vocabulary book for squatters.
2 p.m.	Storywriting and Poems		To give you an ideas of possibilities, help you get inspired, get started and try different styles. Bring pen and paper.
2 p.m.	Bug Walk		Discover the 1001 shapes and colours of insects that come out in spring. Bring paper and something to lean on, pencils and coloured pencils...
2 p.m.	Botanical Walk	Meeting point: at the Field	A stroll to learn a bit about the life of plants and which ones are edible, toxic or medicinal. Tuesday afternoon only: We make a bigger tour on bikes, bring one if you can!
7 p.m.	History of the struggle against the airport and of the ZAD		Presentation about the struggle, the stakes and the main actors

Wednesday 11

At dawn (7 a.m.)	Bird Walk	In front of Le Sabot	Discovering our feathered friends in the hedgerows, and learn to open our ears to recognise their songs. Small game at the end. (with hot tea and coffee)
10 a.m., all day, continuing Thursday.	Natural Dyes and Wool Crafts	La Gaité	Dying wool and white cotton clothes using wild plants and little material, making patterns, tiedyes, prints. There will be some spare time which we propose to fill with cordage and wool spinning, crocheting and felting.
10 a.m.	Clay Burner Making	NoName
10:30 a.m., all day	Aerial Platform Construction	La Saulce	Building simple but stable platform in a tree eg. for a tree house. We'll learn basic knots and climbing safety. Short climbing introduction for non-climbers. (with lunch)
2 p.m.	Tofu and Soya Milk Making	Field Kitchen
9 p.m.	Concert Performance	La Bellichroote

Thursday 12

10 a.m., all day.	Natural Dyes and Wool Crafts	La Gaité	Dying wool and white cotton clothes using wild plants and little material, making patterns, tie-dyes, prints. There will be some spare time which we propose to fill with cordage and wool spinning, crocheting and felting.
10 a.m., 2 p.m.	Screenprinting (and maybe Plasterboard Printing)	La Bellichroote	Printing your designs on various materials for posters, stickers, clothes or patches. The screens we make out of waste materials.
10:30 a.m.	Learning German		Come with ideas of what to learn. For Beginners. We'll make a vocabulary book for squatters.
3 p.m.	Antennas &amp; Radio Broadcasting	Les Planchettes (Kitchen)	How to set up and operate an FM radio
4 p.m.	Seed exchange	La Paquelais market	Set the seed free! Bring your seeds and plants to share. Also a chance to discuss biodiversity, traditional seeds, sovereignty and guerrilla gardening.
to be confirmed	Discussion about alternative communication networks		How to create alternatives to always using internet and mobiles?
10 p.m.	Astronomy and Starwalk	Champ y en a marre	Constellations & lunar love & plants
9 p.m.	Film Projection and Debate : « Inculture »	La Gaité	A film about popular education.

Friday 13

At dawn (7 a.m.)	Bird Walk	In front of Le Sabot	Discovering our feathered friends in the hedgerows, and learn to open our ears to recognise their songs. Small game at the end. (with hot tea and coffee)
10 a.m.	Clay Burner Making	NoName
10 a.m.	Botanical Walk	Meeting point: at the Field	A stroll to learn a bit about the life of plants and which ones are edible, toxic or medicinal.
1:13 p.m.	Mosaic	La Gaité
2 p.m.	Story illustration		Illustrating stories or poems, trying different styles, having an idea of different approaches. Try to bring paper, colouring pencils and other drawing materials, &amp; short stories or poems, written by you or others.
2 p.m.	Nettle Party: Liquid Manure and Cooking	Le Sabot	Stinging afternoon at Sabot : Come and learn how to transform dear nettles into super-liquid-manure for the gardens of the resistance while others pick more to prepare a hearty meal (soup, tarts...). Bring recipe ideas and ingredients.
2 p.m.	I.T. Security		Encrypting your data and communications , introduction to truecrypt and PGP
9 p.m.	Gypso mix		Plasterboard- and Screenprinting with music

Samedi 14

10 a.m.	Botanical Walk	Meeting point: at the Field	A stroll to learn a bit about the life of plants and which ones are edible, toxic or medicinal.
10 a.m., 14 p.m.	Self-defense	Field	Kung fu fighting in the style of panda vs police
10 a.m., all day	Floating platform	Les Noues Pourries	Constructing a platform floating on a lake.
10:30 a.m.	Learning German		Come with ideas of what to learn. For Beginners. We'll make a vocabulary book for squatters.
2 p.m.	Bug Walk		Discover the 1001 shapes and colours of insects that come out in spring. Bring paper and something to lean on, pencils and coloured pencils...
	Party		The image of the decadence of our solitude in society or the hour of total selfconstruction

Dimanche 15

10 a.m., 14 p.m.	Self-defense	Field	Kung fu fighting in the style of panda vs police
all day	Tat-down	Field	Action consisting of putting things and beings into their boxes.